Micheladas are made with Modelo Special

A Michelada is a popular Mexican cocktail or cerveza preparada (prepared beer) that became popular in Mexico in the 1940's when people started mixing beer with hot sauce or salsa. It's now starting to catch on in other parts of the world and can be compared to a Bloody Mary. In order to be considered a true Michelada, it must include lime and salt. A classic Michelada's flavor reflects the true origins of its name, mi chela helada, or "My Cold Beer".
